

please no cell phones on airplanes, it would add to the noise that is already too great. you may consider allowing them the 30 minutes before touchdown to alert prople picking you up, but no business calls on the plane. use email instead.

jim